A 'CABAL' BEHIND CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

For centuries an international mafia of rich and powerful people have been behind big wars, starvation and poverty. They have been operating under many names, structures and organizations, and are often referred to as 'the Cabal'. They have financially been tyrannizing nations and people, taking away from humanity the choice of really living as free and prosperous people.

CONTROLLING RESOURCES, TECHNOLOGY AND KNOWLEDGE

The Cabal members have put themselves as gatekeepers between mankind and nature, depriving humanity of nature's resources. They have hid knowledge and technology that could long ago have revolutionized how we live - and how we understand life and the universe we are a part of.

NO Starvation and NO Poverty!

They have actively been preventing the release of technologies that can help supply all people in the world with clean energy, clean water and nutritious food. Other existing technologies to be released will revolutionize the treatment of diseases and help us clean up the environment.

The power elite is described as consisting of members of the corporate community, military service personnel, academics, politicians, media editors and high-profile journalists.

THE POWER ELITE

Internationally, the Cabal has been operating among the Power Elite in various countries.

In political and sociological theory, the 'Power Elite' is a small group of people who control

The elitists often circulate from one of these sectors to another, to accumulate power and control as they go. These sectors are then functioning and acting as one entity, to reach a common agenda.

Some people among the Power Elite have been part of the Cabal; some have not.

THE CABALS NEW WORLD ORDER

The Cabal's "Great Work of Ages" has been in the process of implementation for many centuries.

The final stage and fulfilment of this age-old project was intended by the Cabal to be a one-world government. They claim the establishment of this global government is the only way to create and maintain lasting 'peace' between peoples and nations.

What they do not so openly confess is that in their version of a peaceful world, a select few would rule over the many, using force and manipulation.

The established system of an elite ruling the people has been cultivated over thousands of years. The full realization of the Cabals one-world government would only have been the finishing capstone of this old system.

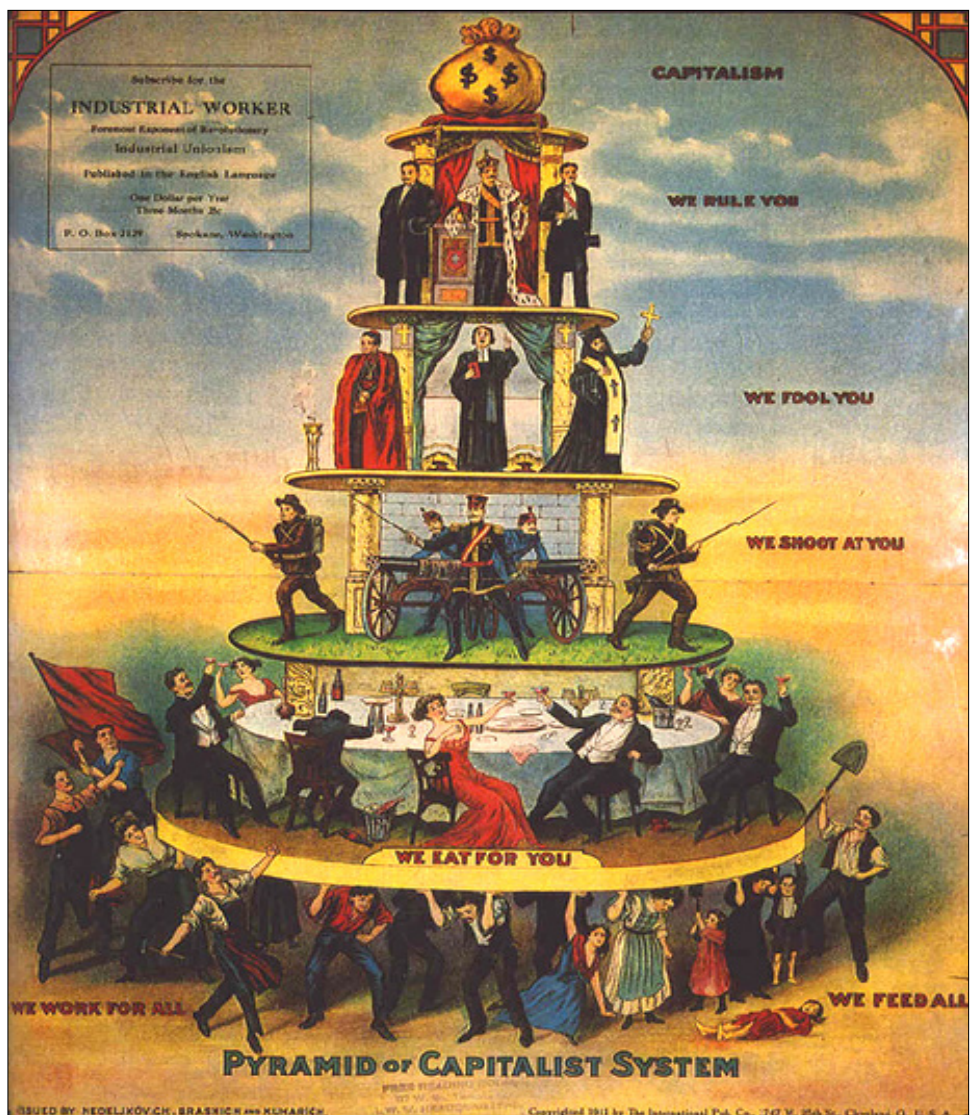

Nonetheless, for promotional reasons, they call their one-world governmental structure the New World Order.

This pyramid-formed grey stone found in the jungles of Ecuador in the 1980s are among the objects referred to as the La Mana artefacts. The so-called 'Pyramid with the Eye' has the same characteristics as the present day pyramid the Cabal is using as one of their main symbols. It has thirteen levels of brick and is crowned with an eye. The pre-Sanskrit writing besides the gold inlay at the bottom dates it back 6000+ years. This may be showing us that the Cabal's "Great Work of Ages" has been under way for thousands of years.

Part of what the Cabal's pyramid is symbolizing is the hierarchical social structure where the rich and the few are ruling and living off those who actually do the productive work. From an "illuminated" elite at the top of the pyramid, control is streaming down. And flowing back up are the goods and services from the ordinary workers who are supporting the entire structure, functionally being slaves.
